

Documenting Connections

Use these phrases to help you recognize or remember additional details to bring into your storytelling for a more interesting and personally compelling experience.

Little Known Fact

is for adding random facts from your family life, past and present.

Did You Know?

is for bits of trivia about elements in your photographs or in your story.

For Your Information

is all about definitions, explanations and historical details that help define a word, tradition or cultural observance.

Guess What?

Is designed to help you include coincidences or similarities between events or photos in your story and those of an earlier time.

Remember When

invites observation and celebration for change, growth or improvement over time.

The Truth About

is an opportunity for you to set the record straight. What is your truth about something relatively common or expected.